NJAIR

The New Jersey Associate for Institutional Research's (NJAIR) mission is to promote communication and cooperation among researchers in higher education.

This is the organization's 10th year in existence.

The mission of NJAIR (New Jersey Association for Institutional Research) is to promote communication and cooperation among higher education researchers in New Jersey.

The goals of NJAIR include:

- promoting professional development (sharing information, information technology, research methods, etc.),
- facilitating information/data sharing,
- identifying and analyzing the emerging issues in higher education, and
- facilitating networking among colleagues.
